THAT SCHOOL HISTORY.

Miss Kate Rowland, of Washington, D. C., has written, in reply to a request her opinion of Mrs. Lee's history of the United States, about which there has been so much discussion of late. Miss Rowland is a descendant of a distinguished old colonial family, and, being herself an authoress, is a person whose opinion on any subject is well worth considering. Her letter is addressed to Colonel Kirk Otey, and is as follows: "I feel very much gratified that you should ask my opinion as to a school history for your little boy. The book that you speak of, by Mrs. Susan Pendleton Lee, I have not yet seen, but I have read Mrs. Lee's biography of her father, Rev. William Nelson Pendleton, commander of the artillery corps, a very interesting and well written memoir, and I am sure Mrs. Lee would succeed in a history of the United States. You see who she was, and by marriage she is, of our historic Lee family, the widow of General Edwin Gray Lee. See 'Lee of Virginia—1642—1892'—a valuable work recently published by Dr. E. L. Lee, formerly of Alexandria, and now of Philadelphia. Mrs. Lee's history has been endorsed by the Confederate Veterans at Houston, and, as shown in a prospectus of the book sent me by the publishers, by teachers and others throughout the South. Several of them say that it is the only school history that they have read that deals fairly with the South. Mr. Stonewall Jackson endorses it, I notice. Professor James M. Garrett, of the University of Virginia, recommends it for use in schools. I admire your spirit about this matter. The veterans and the Daughters of the Confederacy must agitate the subject and protest until there is a reform in Virginia, and elsewhere, throughout the 'Confederacy.'"

Colonel Otey has received a copy of the history and has made an examination of that part of it which relates to the war between the States. He is convinced that the account given of that great struggle is a fair and impartial narration and does justice to the cause of the South. "The subject," says Colonel Otey, "will be brought up before the next meeting of the Garland-Rodes Camp, and it is possible that that body may take action on the same."

Colonel Otey in a second conversation on the subject said: "That part of it up to the late war is standard. The balance beginning with the secession of the southern States, through the war and down to the election of Harrison in 1888, I have read and as far as I can judge is a good history and would like to see it in our public schools."—Lynchburg News.

THE DUKE ARRESTED.—The Duke Marlborough, the fiancé of Miss Constance Vanderbilt, was arrested in Central Park, New York, yesterday afternoon, on the charge of violating a park ordinance. The Duke was seen by a park policeman passing rapidly down a hill on his bicycle with his feet on the handles, and as far as I can judge is a good history and would like to see it in our public schools.

He said he regretted the occurrence, as he was unaware of the existence of any ordinance which he had apparently broken. Roundsmen Ryan, who was in charge, discharged the duke after warning him not to repeat the offense. The duke returned to the Plaza Hotel immediately after he was released. The news of his arrest quickly spread among his acquaintances, a score or more of whom called to offer their condolence and to apologize for the police.

The many sensational accounts sent out from New York concerning the arrest are untrue.

Irving W. Larimore, physical director of Y. M. C. A., Des Moines, Iowa, says he can conscientiously recommend Chamberlain's Pain Balm to athletes, gymnasts, bicyclists, foot ball players and the profession in general for bruises, sprains and dislocation; also for soreness and stiffness of the muscles. When applied before the parts become swollen it will effect a cure in one half the time usually required. For sale by L. Stabler & Co.

A False Diagnosis.

La Grippe is confounded by many persons with a severe attack of catarrh, which in some respects resembles the former. These individuals suffer severely with pain about the forehead, eyes and ears, with soreness in throat and stoppage of the nasal passages, and in fact, are incapacitated for work of any kind for days at a time. These are catarrhal sufferers. Ely's Cream Balm has been used with the best results in such cases. The remedy will give instant relief.

CANDIDATES.

TO THE DEMOCRATIC VOTERS OF THE 14TH SENATORIAL DISTRICT:

I respectfully announce myself a candidate for reelection to the State Senate. My record in that body during the past four years is before you like an open book. I supported or opposed men and measures according to my conception of the best interests of the people. I represented them, and have no regrets on that score. Upon my return from a trip necessarily undertaken I will make haste to render an account to my constituents and confront my critics if there be any.
